Foreshore Drive

Had peace for about a month after the joint operation with Metro and Saps, now the problem has started again. Resident have details regarding incident Metro had said it was not their problem. Saps and Metro need to take Zero Tolerance. Fines need to be raised. Hawker outside Green Dolphin still selling Drugs.

Matters Arising

Behind Bluff Bowling Club, Drugs are been sold. Needs to be investigated.
Car wash Marine Drive probably got no licence to operate busy investigating.
Drinking in public on Marine Drive, Wentworth side. Ongoing problem. Saps drove passed but did not issue fine, claiming out of their area. Wentworth Cpf to be notified.
It was mentioned that the small crimes should be concentrated on, before they become major crimes.
It was noted that the Engen Garage had been raided a few times; trading licence is now in question.
Vagrants in bushes in Smith Drive near swimming pool, where Sapref are storing their equipment, sell drugs openly. Saps were called out no one responded .Set up meeting with Supt Du Toit to discuss this matter.
The problem of taxis stopping anywhere was briefly discussed. It was suggested that a letter to the Taxi Association reporting the relevant drivers.
A brief discussion of Guy Fawkes at Harlequins took place.
